Amar Naga has over 14 years of experience in TCS with a distinguished career spread across 4 countries in the Americas region. He has a broad blend of technology and industry experience and has worked for many Fortune 500 customers across the US, Europe and South America in leading delivery and sales roles. In addition, Amar assists in the overall management of the delivery through his involvement in special projects that help maintain high cost saves to customer while maximizing internal profit margins.

Currently Amar is heading TCS' new North American delivery center based in Milford. Prior to this role, he was Director of Global accounts at TCS Latin America. He was instrumental in setting up TCS operations in Uruguay, adopting partnerships as well as organic and inorganic growth strategies to create a business unit that now serves 25 clients and employs 800 local professionals.
