Clermont Chamber and Citizens Law Enforcement Association honor Police Officers

On Thursday, May 27, the Clermont Chamber of Commerce, and the Clermont County Citizens Law Enforcement Association (CCCLEA) present the Police Appreciation Banquet, a countywide dinner to say "thank you" to our outstanding police officers.

This event has the full support of your Chamber of Commerce and the offices of Clermont County Sheriff A.J. "Tim" Rodenberg, Jr., Clermont County Citizens Law Enforcement Association (CCCLEA), Clermont County Prosecutor Don White, Clermont County Bar Association, Clermont County Police Chiefs and Sheriff's Associations, and the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge #112.

In its twenty-seventh year, the Police Appreciation Banquet is the business community's way of recognizing law enforcement in Clermont County. The banquet also gives us the opportunity to have a greater impact in Clermont County by raising funds for the following:

1. Acquaint the public through our awards program on the tremendously good acts performed by our police and citizens that are not always publicized,
2. Emphasize the importance of education in law enforcement through the funding of scholarships to the University of Cincinnati Clermont College,
3. Gain support from the community for law enforcement through the funding of programs like Drug Abuse Resistance Education (DARE), that gives kids the life skills they need to avoid involvement with drugs, gangs, and violence, and
4. Partner with the Clermont County Citizens Law Enforcement Association that serves as an advocate for law enforcement across our community.

Businesses and individuals are invited to join the Clermont Chamber and CCCLEA in honoring our officers by sponsoring an individual officer or a table of eight officers as they enjoy this evening out with their fellow officers. To support the Police Appreciation Banquet, contact the Clermont Chamber at 576-5000 or www.clermontchamber.com.
