Clermont Chamber sponsors “Growing a Talented Workforce” Community Discussion

What can be done to create economic opportunity for our region? To build a talented workforce so that business owners can find the workers they need to grow; to educate workers so they can land the jobs of the future; to help our region compete with other major metro areas in the country and around the globe?

Join this community discussion focused on growing a talented workforce for our region, sponsored by the Clermont Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday morning, August 4, 8:30 – 10:00 a.m. This community meeting is part of a series of Agenda 360 Connecting the Dots events designed to communicate the progress of the Agenda 360 regional initiative to the community and continue the community conversation on the plan. Each month, Agenda 360 will host two Connecting the Dots sessions addressing a particular aspect of the plan and how it affects the community.

The discussion in Clermont County on August 4 will include strategies to attract talent, the lifestyle needs of a talented workforce, the Agenda 360 strategies that will enable us to meet these needs and how an increase in local talent will help Clermont and the greater Cincinnati region grow in important knowledge industries. The event is free and open to the public. To register, call 579-3111 or visit cincinnati.chamber.com.

The meeting will be held at Total Quality Logistics, 4289 Ivy Pointe Blvd. Just off of I275 at Exit 63B in the Eastgate area of Clermont County.
