LEGISLATIVE LUNCHEON FEATURES CINCINNATI CITY MANAGER, MILTON R. DOHONEY, JR.

The Clermont Chamber of Commerce is pleased to welcome Cincinnati City Manager, Milton Dohoney as presenter for the March 23 Legislative Luncheon. Clermont Chamber members and prospective members are invited to network with other business professionals, meet Mr. Dohoney and learn about issues of importance to our region. Hear more about the new initiatives shared by Mayor Mallory in his February 20 State of the City address. Learn about newly hired Economic Development Director, Holly Childs, and the plans of the City to take a more aggressive Economic Development stance. Join in discussion about the impact of these issues on business growth and development in Clermont County.

Appointed in the summer of 06 by Cincinnati Mayor Mark Mallory, Dohoney has 25 years of experience in local government. He has held various leadership positions in both professional and volunteer capacities. His contributions, accomplishments, honors and recognitions are many. In his current position with the City of Cincinnati, Dohoney manages a combined budget of $1 billion and oversees the leadership of 17 city departments and approximately 6,500 employees. Dohoney is a professionally trained facilitator and an accomplished public speaker, having been invited around the country, including the White House, to address a variety of topics. He holds degrees from the University of Louisville and Indiana University Southeast.

Legislative Luncheon sponsors Duke Energy, Great Oaks Career Campuses, and Mercy Clermont and Anderson Hospitals invite you to join us for this unique opportunity to meet with Milton Dohoney.
