EMINENT DOMAIN TOPIC OF CLERMONT CHAMBER'S LEGISLATIVE LUNCHEON

"...nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation."
– 5th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States

The Clermont Chamber of Commerce first Legislative Luncheon of 2007 will be held on Friday, January 12, 2007 at Holiday Inn Eastgate. Bill Seitz, partner in the Litigation Department of Taft, Stettinius & Hollister LLP, is the featured speaker on the topic of Eminent Domain. Representative Seitz, the District 30 State Representative and Assistant Majority Whip of the Ohio House, has been one of the leading voices for eminent domain reform in the state. He co-chaired the State Task Force to study Eminent Domain, which was established shortly after the U.S. Supreme Court's controversial 2005 Kelo vs New London decision. Don't miss this informative and interesting presentation sponsored by Duke Energy, Mercy Hospitals Clermont and Anderson, and Great Oaks Institute of Technology and Career Development.
