Chamber Welcomes New Board Members

Heintzelman

Manning

McDonough

Tuten

The Clermont Chamber of Commerce is pleased to begin 2009 with addition of 4 business leaders to the Board of Directors. New Board Members include Gayle Heintzelman, President/CEO of Mercy Hospital Clermont, Bob Manning, Vice President/CFO of Lykins Companies, James McDonough, Interim Dean of UC Clermont College and Sam Tuten, President/CEO of Kinker-Eveleigh Insurance.

“The Clermont Chamber is proud to serve the businesses of Clermont County. Our ability to serve is greatly enhanced by the members of our board. They represent all aspects of the community, but more importantly, they are willing to roll up their sleeves and work hard to make Clermont County a better place to live, work and play,” said Chip Gerhardt, Chairman of the Clermont Chamber Board of Directors.

Having served the Clermont area business community since 1969, the Clermont Chamber has a long rich history with Kinker-Eveleigh Insurance, Lykins Companies, Mercy Hospital and the University of Cincinnati.

We welcome Gayle, Bob, Jim and Sam to the leadership of the Chamber of Commerce,” said Matt Van Sant, President of the Clermont Chamber. “We look forward to their contributions to the important work before us.”

Each bringing a wealth of experience, talent and personal commitment, the newly elected members of the Clermont Board of Directors assumed their role in January. The Chamber also owes a debt of gratitude to its departing Board members, Greg Niesen, RiverHills Bank and Jeff Lykins, Lykins Companies.

Founded in 1969, the Clermont Chamber of Commerce promotes local and regional business through business attraction, retention & expansion, educational and networking opportunities, business consulting assistance and business advocacy for the over 1000 Clermont Chamber Members.
