On October 14, 2011, University of Cincinnati Senior Vice President of Academic Affairs and Provost Santa J. Ono will be presenting “Building an Academic Master Plan for the University of Cincinnati”. In his presentation Dr. Ono will discuss the process and potential impact of developing a forward-leaning, consensus-driven plan that will guide UC’s academic priorities and resourcing for years to come.

In addition to Dr. Ono’s presentation the Clermont County Business Advisory Council (BAC) will award its 2011 Employer of the Year Awards in celebration of National Disability Employment Awareness Month.

Round Bottom Recycling of Milford will receive the Large Employer of the Year Award; J & A Cleaning of Amelia is the Small Employer of the Year.

The Clermont County BAC honors employers each October for their positive influence in working with people who have developmental or mental health disabilities, while giving these individuals the opportunity to participate in community employment or work assessments.
